West Florida Rebellion

September, 1810, a successful rebellion was staged against Spanish rule along the Mississippi River, and the Republic of West Florida came into existence. The new republic applied for admission as another state in the American union, but instead of honoring this application, President James Madison issued a proclamation annexing all of West Florida to the United States as part of the Louisiana Purchase. The officials of West Florida refused to recognize this annexation, and continued to function as an independent nation.

November 1810, the people along the Pascagoula River issued a declaration of adherence to the West Florida government.

December 5, 1810, the United States Soldiers under Governor Claiborne of the Orleans Territory forcibly seized all the possessions of West Florida along the Mississippi River, and raised the flag of the United States.

One bann published, dispensed with two.

Jean Girard, soldier of the Alibamons detachment, son of Louis Girard, merchant, and of Claude Rabot, native of Rême¹ in Brittany.

Marie Daniau, daughter of Philippe Daniau, mason, and of Anne Thibauld of La Rochelle, St. Jean Parish.

Witnesses named: Marchand, captain; de LaLande, keeper of the storehouse; Duranté; Lorain.

Witnesses signing: (François) Marchand de Courcelles; Charles Marie de Lalande;² Jean Carmouche dit Lorain; the cross of Duranté.³

1. Rême must be Rennes, the prefecture of the department of Ille-et-Vilaine, Brittany.

2. In 1735, he was guardian of the royal storehouse in New Orleans. That year he contracted to marry Charlotte Duval, widow of François Demouy (LHML, SCR, May 4, May 5, 1735).

3. This writer has been unable to identify Duranté.

No banns mentioned.

Ollivier Philippe, native of St. Ma—— in Flanders, Diocese of Cambrai.¹

Louise Marguerite Housso, widow of Dominique Belzaguy, native of —haly,² Diocese of Tours in Touraine.

The witnesses who signed were: (Valentin) Devin, engineer; Marguerite Le Sueur, Canadian-born daughter of Pierre Charles Le Sueur and Marguerite Messier; Paquier, not identified; (Louis Auguste) de la Loëre Flaucour, principal clerk and judge of Mobile (Mob. mb I,3, 5); and (Louis Alexandre?) Durand.

1. Philippe's place of birth could be Saint Maur, Saint Marc, Saint Mané, or perhaps Sainte Marie. Cambrai is in the department of Nord. There is a town named Marq in that department.

2. Louise Marguerite's birthplace looks like «chaly». Cholet, 131 km. from Tours, is a possibility. It is in the Maine-et-Loire department; Tours is in Indre-et-Loire.

Deville (G C C, 20) has Marguerite Housseau or Toulouse, native of Chantilly. This is north of Paris, near Senlis, in the department of Somme. Higginbotham (Old Mobile, 182) also calls it Chantilly. This may result from the confusion of Louise Marguerite Poirier (daughter of Lucien Poirier and Marguerite Toulouse of Chantilly) with Louise Marguerite Housso, wife of Belzaguy.

Three banns announced.

François Alleuin or Allevin, master armurier, of Corbeille,¹ Diocese of Paris; son of François Alleuin, master armurier, and of Magdeleine Gibier of Corbeille.

Catherine Christophe, widow of the late Claude Parent, habitant of the river; daughter of Nicolas Christophe and of Claude Durand.

Witnesses signing were: Ollivier Philippe; (Pierre) Allein (Rouçeve);² (François Guillaume) Melisan, widow of Marie Anne Rouçeve and the 1734 groom of Magdeleine Boyer (Mob. mb I:9); (Noel) de Prouond or Provond, who died less than two years later (Mob. fb I:53).

1. «Corbeille» is now part of Corbeil-Essones, department of Seine-et-Oise, 33 kilometers from Paris.

2. Although the signature is «alin» in 1737 (Mob. mb I:19), the «allein» signatures of 1734 seem to have been written by the same man. It is not the signature of the groom, François Alleuin. (Mob. mb I:9, 10, 19.)

Joseph Duran (Duver), native of St. Loup en (Vauche?),² bishopric of Besançon, son of Antoine Charles Duran and of Anne Claude Parier.

Marie Jacqueline Pierret, of the bishopric of Macon,³ widow of Jean Baptiste (damaged edge of page), daughter of Jean Baptiste Pierret and of Agnesse Simon.

The only signature is that of Father Ferdinand.

1. The record, the last on folio 41, is marked out to nullify it. The right edge is torn and stained. See the repeat of it (Mob. mb I:43), where the groom is named Joseph Duver.

2. There is a St. Loup in Doubs, in the same department as Besançon.

3. Mâcon, the principal city in the department of Saône-et-Loire, is more probable than Mâcon, Belgium.
